The Secretary of Commerce threatened to fire top employees at NOAA on Friday after the agency's Birmingham office contradicted President Trump's claim that Hurricane Dorian might hit Alabama, according to three people familiar with the discussion.

Given this, I wanted to check again if you would like to go on-the-record with us in an interview.

Thank you so much for taking the time to reply, Craig. Beyond your message to employees, there is also great interest from the public, which relies on NOAA for accurate scientific data.

Would you consider a TV interview?

Thank you, Melissa.

I truly appreciate your interest. I am confident that what I expressed in my message to our employees captures what I wanted our employees to hear.

Best wishes,

CM

Hi Craig,

I spoke to your lovely wife Joanne this morning. I'm reaching out in response to Washington Post reporting that you sent an e-mail to NOAA staff about "potential violations of our NOAA Administrative Order on Scientific Integrity."

We would like to invite you to join us for an interview on "Cuomo Prime Time" to speak in your own words about the role of the NOAA, the agency's response, and the importance of maintaining public trust. We are live 9-10P ET and are the #1 show on CNN.

I understand no doubt that you are receiving numerous requests and that this is likely a trying time. I would be happy to speak with you off-the-record about any questions you may have. My direct contact is below.

Should you choose to do an interview, I'm confident that Chris Cuomo would be an excellent fit.

Kind Regards,

Melissa
