Susan: Need your magic here as well. The social science aspect was directed at the need for direct message to shut down what they in the forecast office thought were rumors. Louis

Subject: Fox News Request for Video & Possible Statement

Good evening Dr. Uccellini,

Fox News is interested in the video you recently posted to twitter where you explained the forecast evacuations and response to Hurricane Dorian. You specifically talked about the role social media played in exaggerating the misconceptions that Dorian could impact Alabama. Would you be able to release a statement to Fox News about that please? And can we have permission to use the video you posted to twitter as well? Please reply all to this mail.
