Good afternoon,

One additional question to the below.

Do you have any information on the New York Times reporting this afternoon that the Secretary threatened firings over the situation?

Thank you,

Greg

Good morning,

I am reading this morning that Mr. McLean is investigating whether the NOAA response to the President's social media posts and comments on Dorian was appropriate, and if those violated any procedures or ethics.

Is that accurate, and could you please share the email?

Thank you,
Greg
