Dr Jacobs,
NOAA's scolding of Birmingham's contradiction of the fraudulent claims made by the clown in office, evidently at the threats by Ross, undermine and demean the integrity of you agency and lessen the public's faith therein.

When science becomes the handmaiden of politicians, we take another step back to despotism. If our own agencies don't stand up for truth and accuracy against an administration built on lies and prejudice, then who do the American public turn to, Fox News and the Koch brothers? Pathetic. And we are supposed to teach our kids to respect and honor the government? Even they can figure that out.
